This block was originally selected by a wealthy American to build his dream home for his Australian bride. It was the biggest and best available with beach and ocean views.

You will be mesmerised by the views over Avoca Beach as you enter the property. New marble top kitchen with breakfast bars on either end make it the perfect place for a family or entertain. Two wood fireplaces at either end of the property will remind you of the original charm built into the property with great separation for family living with both areas opening up to amazing entertaining decks with ocean and beach vistas. Three lavish new bathrooms await you with the feeling of pure luxury. If you are looking for that extra space and nothing to do but enjoy beautiful central coast living at its best you must inspect this stunning family
